Black Forest Easter Egg Hunt set for April 4

Black Forest's free Easter Egg Hunt will roll again on Saturday, April 4, at La Foret Conference and Retreat Center, 6145 Shoup Road (three-quarters of a mile west of Black Forest Road).

Please plan to arrive no later than 9:45 a.m. The hunting starts promptly at 10 a.m. and the eggs are usually found quickly.

The members of Black Forest Fire Rescue – both volunteer and career – are proud to continue our annual tradition of creating the finest “free range” egg hunt in Colorado. This is egg hunting the way it was meant to be: an all-terrain, all-weather experience that country kids really enjoy.

There will be plenty of eggs to find. This year, your Black Forest firefighters (and their children) are boiling and dyeing 135 dozen eggs, generously donated by the NestFresh company.

The staff of La Foret has continued the camp's tradition of community involvement by once again hosting this event free of charge. The hunt is divided into four age groups, with increasing levels of challenge, so kids from toddlers through age 12 can all enjoy the fun.

Dress for the weather (snowshoes if necessary), bring a basket for each child and come to have fun. After the eggcellent eggstravaganza, we invite you to visit with your Black Forest firefighters, and let the kids enjoy the big red trucks.
